STOCK MARKET BOOM THRIVES.

"Western Contingent" Is Pressing the Game and the Easterners Are Just Trailing.

NEW YORK CENTRAL LED.

Was Feature of the Trading To-Day and Wall Street Is Puzzled - Other Railroads Were Active.

The stock market continued its upward course to-day with the 'Western contingent" in command.

The professionals have been antagonistic to the later phases of the bull movement in stocks, but they are "switching" and getting in line with the procession. So universally are they walking in step with the music of the "Western contingent" that L.ey are called "trailers." this is exceedingly unkind, but Wall street is not given to sentiment and takes pleasure in calling attention to the shortcomings of the people who make their living in the market and who pride themselves on their superior wisdom.

The veterans of the street compare the present situation with that commencing with the assurance of the reelection of McKinley, a little less than two years ago. Then, as now, the "Western contingent" took charge of the stock market, and started a movement among themselves over Northern Pacific and precipitated a disastrous panic, which was a wet blanket on stock spec ulation until the very recent past.

LAMB AND STETSON IN A WAR OF WORDS

Peter Power, the Elusive, Again Fails to Appear and the Railroad Attorney and His Opponent Quarrel.

erious person who is trying to prevent the railroad merger of the Pacific Railroads did not appear in court proceedings to-day, as his counsel, George Alfred Lamb, half-promised yesterday. As a result Francis Lynde Stetson, counsel to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, announced that unless Power appears in the United States Circuit Court at 11 A. M. next Tuesday, he would ask a dismissal of the complaint and the punishment of Power for contempt.

After much bitter correspondence Mr.

Lamb yesterday said he would produce Power at Mr. Stetson's office, at No. 15 Broad street, this noon, in order that his examination might not interfere with Mr. Lamb's sailing for Europe to morrow for a vacation, "the first in five years," he said.

Power Falls to Appear.

Power did not appear at 12 o'clock, ut a half hour later Mr. Lamb did. "I have learned that even if I had brought Mr. Power to-day," he said to Mr. Stetson, "that you would not have accommodated me by waiting arguments until my return on Sept. 15; so I shall not attempt to accommodate you shall not attempt to accommodate you. I wish you would hold this all over until later to accommodate me."
"You dragged me to Minneapolis on New Year's Day," said Mr. Stetson, "and I don't see where you can claim any consideration."
This was the beginning of a hot passage of words between the two law, ers until Mr. Stetson, the legal representative of J. Pierpont Morgan and the other great moneyed interests of Wall street, cried:

Caused Lamb to Blush

h a subpoena properly. After the ring he announced that his trip to rope was abandoned and that he hearing he announced that his trip to Europe was abandoned and that he would be in court Tuesday. He would not say if Power would be, adding that it was "up to the defense to compei Power to attend."

As Mr. Lamb was leaving Mr. Stetson apologized for his hot words and said he regretted wrangling with a guest in his own office.
